

INSPIRED • BEAUTIFUL • AFFORDABLE

Navajo Nights, a fine Native American jewelry crafter, is owned and operated by Kay Begay Rogers. Navajo Nights was specifically formed to provide Native American inspired and beautifully crafted jewelry that is attractive to a large demographic. With a budget-conscious price point and fashion-forward designs, our pieces appeal to a wide market.

The Begay family has been in the jewelry design and fabrication business for over 80 years. Kay and her daughter, Nonabah Bahe, bring the artistry and creativity of their lifelong experiences with both traditional and innovative designs to every Navajo Nights piece.

The startup of Navajo Nights in 2013 was especially meant to reach the growing market of younger, hipper buyers looking for that classic and indigenous look, but at an affordable price.

THE COLLABORATION

Kay Begay Rogers is a silversmith, designer and award-winning jeweler. She first studied under her father Kenneth Begay. Her artistic acumen is brought to bear on all of the designs and craftsmanship of Navajo Nights jewelry.

Nonabah Bahe's designs are youthful and fresh, informed by her many years of apprenticeship to her mother's and grandfather's stellar craftsmanship and innovation. Nonabah's work is inspired by her knowledge of what is trending, fresh and fashionable in the Native American jewelry market.

Together Kay and Nonabah have put together a collection of quality beaded glass, stone and gem pieces that are inspired, beautiful and affordable.

THE COLLECTION

The Navajo Nights collection offers jewelry that will inspire locals and tourist alike to purchase a piece or two of jewelry they will wear regularly because of their contemporary beauty and/or a reminder of the Native American lands of the Southwest that they have travel through.

Designs have been created in several categories to provide a range of tastes and affordability. Our designs have been test marketed in Window Rock, Arizona among Navajo men and women who have found their beauty, quality and price to be worthy of purchase. From Phoenix to Albuquerque, you are likely to see Navajos wearing Navajo Nights jewelry. Kay and Nonabah have knowledge of the market, what will sell, and the ability to produce quality work at an affordable price. Navajo Nights is proud to share our catalog of designs with you. We know customers will be happy with our service and the quality of our products.
